Copyright Dispute Policy

Blippa

PUBLISHED DATE
FEB 23, 2022

We reserve the right to (1) block access to or remove material that we believe in good faith to be copyrighted material that has been illegally copied and distributed by any of our advertisers, affiliates, content providers, members or users and (2) remove and discontinue service to repeat offenders.

Blippa's Hosting Services is at all times subject to the Terms and Conditions, which incorporates this Copyright Dispute Policy.

1. Procedure for Reporting Copyright Infringements

If you believe that material or content residing on or accessible through the Hosting Services infringes your copyright (or the copyright of someone who you are authorised to act on behalf of), please send a notice of copyright infringement containing the following information to Blippa's Designated Agent to Receive Notification of Claimed Infringement (our "Designated Agent," whose contact details are listed below):

- a. A physical or electronic signature of a person authorised to act on behalf of the owner of the copyright that has been allegedly infringed;
- b. Identification of works or materials being infringed;

c. Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing including information regarding the location of the infringing materials that the copyright owner seeks to have removed, with sufficient detail so that Blippa is capable of finding and verifying its existence;

d. Contact information about the notifier including address, telephone number and, if available, email address;

e. A statement that the notifier has a good faith belief that the material identified in (1)(c) is not authorised by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and

f. A statement made under penalty of perjury that the information provided is accurate and the notifying party is authorised to make the complaint on behalf of the copyright owner.

2. Once Proper Bona Fide Infringement Notification is Received by the Designated Agent

Upon receipt of a proper notice of copyright infringement, we reserve the right to:

a. remove or disable access to the infringing material;

b. notify the content provider who is accused of infringement that we have removed or disabled access to the applicable material; and

c. terminate such content provider's access to the Hosting Services if he or she is a repeat offender.

3. Procedure to Supply a Counter-Notice to the Designated

If the content provider believes that the material that was removed (or to which access was disabled) is not infringing, or the content provider believes that it has the right to post and use such material from the copyright owner, the copyright owner's agent, or, pursuant to the law, the content provider may send us a counter-notice containing the following information to the Designated Agent:

- a. A physical or electronic signature of the content provider;
- b. Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or disabled;
- c. A statement that the content provider has a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification of the material; and
- d. Content provider's name, address, telephone number, and, if available, email address, and a statement that such person or entity consents to the jurisdiction of the Federal Court for the judicial district in which the content provider's address is located, or, if the content provider's address is located outside the United States, for any judicial district in which Blippa is located, and that such person or entity will accept service of process from the person who provided notification of the alleged infringement.

If a counter-notice is received by the Designated Agent, Blippa may, in its discretion, send a copy of the counter-notice to the original complaining party informing that person that Blippa may replace the removed material or cease disabling it in 10 business days. Unless the copyright owner files an action seeking a court order against the content provider accused of committing infringement, the removed material may be replaced or access to it restored in 10 to 14 business days or more after receipt of the counter-notice, at Blippa's discretion.
